

HUMAN TRAFFICKING FACT SHEET

An estimated 21 million to 45 million people are trapped in some form of slavery today. "Human Trafficking" is also sometimes called "Modern-Day Slavery." By whatever terminology, at all times it is "slavery at its core." (endslaverynow.org)

Definitions

Human Trafficking: The United Nations defines human trafficking as the recruitment, transportation, transfer, harboring, or receipt of persons by improper means (such as force, abduction, fraud, or coercion) for an improper purpose, including forced labor or sexual exploitation.

Slavery: 1) Bondage to a master or household. 2) A mode of production in which slaves constitute the principal work force. (American Heritage Dictionary)

Slave Trade: Traffic in slaves – specifically the transportation of slaves (American Heritage Dictionary)

Types of Modern Slavery

Sex Trafficking: Women, men, or children who are forced into the commercial sex industry and held against their will by force, fraud, or coercion.

Forced Labor: Human beings who are forced to work under the threat of violence and for no pay. These slaves are treated as property and exploited to create a product for commercial sale.

Bonded Labor: Individuals that are compelled to work in order to repay a debt and unable to leave until the debt is repaid. It is the most common form of enslavement in the world.

Child Labor: Any enslavement of a child – whether forced labor, domestic servitude, bonded labor, or sex trafficking.

Domestic Servitude: Employees working in private homes who are forced or coerced into serving and/or fraudulently convinced that they have no option to leave.

Forced Marriage: Women and children who are forced to marry another without their consent or against their will.

States can join pending lawsuit to resume deporting illegals

Arizona, State of et al v. United States Department of Homeland Security, et al:

Urge your states Attorney General to join this Lawsuit. Arizona Attorney General Brnovich has sued the U.S. Department of Homeland Security and top federal officials, challenging President Biden's order that paused for 100 days the deportations of unauthorized immigrants who have not been accused of terrorism and espionage. The lawsuit is trying to stop the humanitarian crisis the Biden administration has created. Thousands of these are unaccompanied minors who are now waiting for unverified "family" in the United States. Many of these children are victims of Human Trafficking!
